Coming soon to a television near you - Puppy TV. The show, being produced for Telus On Demand, features puppies frolicking on the set of a miniature boardwalk and beach.

"We are making all of our movie stars little animals. So we are potentially in for a very long day, but we are also in for the most adorable day ever," Puppy TV director Katrina Beatty.

Puppy TV is a spinoff of the already popular Kitten TV, which is currently in its sixth season. A baby goat show is also in the works.

The stars of the show are all available for adoption through the Second Chance Animal Rescue Society (<https://scarscare.ca>), 780-466-7227 or adoption@scarscare.ca (<mailto:adoption@scarscare.ca>)
